OFF BROADWAY

NY Fringe Festival (The Space) Dir: Karen Blood Cherry Lane
"...Augustine's droll performance makes Nick's opening chatter (and every other bit of his stage time) seem much wittier than the material actually is. He deftly selects the lines that deserve weight and tosses off the rest, finding the merriness in the misery". -NY THEATRE.com

A WALK ON LAKE ERIE by Heather McCutcheon HOME For Contemporary Theatre
"...Mayor Dennis...as played by John Augustine, has a guileful innocence and instills some needed humor into the ghoulish play." -Mel Gussow, NY TIMES

DURANG, DURANG by Christopher Durang Dir: Walter Bobbie Manhattan Theatre Club
Multiple roles Replaced Keith Reddin final week.

GIN & BITTERS by Susan Cinnoman Dir: Allison Somers Miranda Theatre
Tommy. A confused alcoholic bisexual.

SEVEN BLOWJOBS by Mac Wellman Dir: Jim Simpson SoHo Rep
"...the actors are an agile comic team" -Mel Gussow, NY TIMES

NAOMI IN THE LIVING ROOM Dir: Chris Durang Ensemble Studio Theatre's Marathon
"...As a married son who escapes his mama's tirades by adopting his wife's clothes and mannerisms, Augustine manages to put lunacy back into cross dressing." -Village Voice

ELEGIES FOR ANGELS, PUNKS... Dir: Bill Russell Ohio Theatre / Rapp Arts
Fundamentalists Son.

CHIRS DURANG & DAWNE Criterion Center/ Caroline's Comedy Club/The Triad
Dir: Deb Lapidus / Musical dir: Michael O'Flaherty

"...with pelvis swinging John Augustine, it's a divinely bonkers hour." -Village Voice
"...Critic's choice" - Ben Brantley, NY TIMES

YOUNG PLAYWRIGHT FESTIVAL by Robert Kerr Dir: Chris Durang Playwrights Horizons
"...Durang gets spirited performances from his actors, particularly Robert Sean Leonard as Dan, John Augustine in multiple comic roles, and Debra Monk as the mother." -Jan Stuart, Seven Days
